Dear

Recently it seems there have been a couple of earthquakes along the west coast every year. It is our responsibility to inform you of the coverage that you have against this type of catastrophic loss.

Policy forms vary, some have earthquake coverage for contents, some do not. No policy includes earthquake for the dwelling, unless it is specifically endorsed to the policy per your request.

Below we have indicated whether or not your policy includes coverage for either the home or the contents. If the indication is no, the coverage can be added by endorsement.

[] Coverage for your dwelling.

[] Coverage for your contents.

If you would be interested in adding this coverage to your policy or just a quote please feel free to call us.

Thank you for your continued business.

Sincerely,
